FROM THE DIRECTOR'S DESK....

On behalf of the Parks & Recreation Department, I am delighted to welcome new and returning families to our 33rd Summer of Music & Arts Camp. Top notch instruction is provided to students by certified teachers from school districts around the region. Our staff is passionate about their disciplines, teaching, and Music & Arts camp. They love to teach and get fired up to work with students of all abilities that are eager to learn. Daily sessions provide the concentrated time needed to complete intricate projects and to make breakthroughs in personal achievement.

Please sign your child up for a variety of disciplines so that they may experience all the arts! Your child will be engaged, involved and enlightened while having a fantastic time exploring his or her creativity. Our theme this summer will be "At the Ocean". You will see this theme throughout the annual art show and final performance which are a great opportunities for kids to show off all their hard work to friends and family. Mark your calendar now, Thursday, July 22nd. P.S. Don't forget the camcorder. Join us and discover the magic that has helped Glastonbury stars shine for 33 years running.

Bruce DeLugo
Music & Arts Camp Director
